ESQ. C. L. DADE

Is Again a Candidate For Magistrate In District 6.

Esq. Chas. L. Dade, the only democrat who has been elected magistrate in district No. 6, comprising Gracely, Newstead and Brent's Shop precincts for a generation, is announced as a candidate for re-election, subject to the primary in August. During the four years that Esq. Dade has been a member of the Fiscal Court he has taken a position of prominence in the business affairs of the county and has made a most enviable record in office. His experiences renders him still better qualified for his important duties and the county can ill afford to dispense with his valuable services. If nominated—and there seems to be no doubt of his success—he will give strength to the whole ticket of his party, since his district is one of the republican strongholds of the county and his neighbors and friends of all parties will see that he is elected.

FISCAL COURT DID MUCH

Required Three Days to Get Through With All Its Business.

NEW LEVY WAS NOT MADE

Magistrates Will Let Contracts For The Roads in Their Districts.

The Fiscal Court convened last Tuesday and adjourned Thursday afternoon. It was the spring meeting, at which time there is always a big lot of work to be disposed of.

The first day the claims against the county were allowed and other necessary orders made.

Wednesday the question of draining Swallow Spring was brought up and occasioned a great deal of discussion. Mr. C. R. Adams, who owns a farm near the spring, offered to enter into a contract with the county to drain the spring and keep it drained for the sum of $1,000. If he fails to carry out his contract, he is to return to the county what money he receives. For several years crops have been ruined by the overflow of water from the spring and so regular have they been, that the owners of the lands covered by water have had to dispense with that part of their farms for cultivation and the traveling public has had to drive a considerable distance out of the way to get to and from the city. Everything possible has been done by the county to do away with the trouble but has failed. The matter was under consideration Wednesday but the court failed to arrive at a decision as to what was best to be done.

As published in this paper ten days since the State board of appraisers, at a recent meeting, raised the assessed value of farming lands and personal property in the county 15 per cent on the $100. The court thinks this raise unjust and appropriated $75 to defray the expenses of a committee to go to Frankfort and protest against this raise.

The sum of $10,000 was appropriated for keeping the pikes of the county in repair.

There are eight Magisterial districts in the county. The court ordered that $3,000 be allowed for road purposes in districts 3 to 8 inclusive.

The plan of working the dirt roads in the county, which was adopted two or three years since, is regarded as the best of any that has ever been tried, and, by order of the court, Road Supervisor Coleman had advertised for farmers to submit bids for working the dirt roads extending along their premises. Wednesday some bids were opened, but, after much discussion, the court made an order which may be termed a new departure in road work. The order empowers each Magistrate in conjunction with the Supervisor to make contracts for working the roads in his district.

This is thought by some to be a great improvement and throws the responsibility of keeping the roads in good condition on each Magistrate, in place of the eight members having to look into the way the different members of the court are attending to their duties as servants of the people.

The Court has $33,000 to expend in road building and road improvements this year. As is well known more interest has been manifested in good roads during the past twelve months than in five years past. The County Crop Improvement Association is deeply interested in the matter and the H. B. M. A. has been quite active in arousing the farmers to come to the aid of the Fiscal Court in road improvement all over the county.

FRIEDMANN TELLS OF PATENT RIGHTS

His Tubercular Cure Is Discussed Officially.

New York, April 4.—Dr. Friedrich Franz Friedmann, defending the petition for a patent on his tubercular cure, which was printed exclusively in the International News Service newspapers today, declares that his right to a patent rests on three discoveries. They are: First—The method of killing tubercular bacilli with a hammer.

Second—That virulent and non-virulent bacilli bred together would produce non-virulent bacilli, the latter in the end completely dominating and annihilating the virulent bacilli.

Third—A Naehrboeden, or medium of culture which contained only harmless or poisonous substance, a discovery heretofore unknown to bacteriologists.

This supplementary explanation was made by Dr. Friedmann in answer to the Berlin examiner of patents, who recommended that a patent be denied.

In opposing the application of Dr. Friedmann for a patent the preliminary examiner reported:

"It has been known for some time how to alter by breeding and how to use non-virulent tubercular bacilli in the preparation of antitoxins for warm-blooded animals by injecting and for the production of animal serums, and from the record of the laboratory experiments it must be concluded that curative serums of great value can be produced in the manner therein described."

D. D. CAYCE

Candidate For Councilman In the Sixth Ward.

Mr. D. D. Cayce is announced as a candidate to represent the Sixth Ward in the next Council, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the official primary election. Mr. Cayce is a successful Main street merchant, a prosperous business man and a Democrat of influence and recognized standing and leadership, having served his party for several years as County Committeeman. If nominated and elected Mr. Cayce promises to give his personal attention to the duties of the office and look closely after the needs of his ward and the city.

GEORGE W. McKNIGHT South Christian's Candidate For County Assessor.

Reproduced herewith is a likeness of Mr. Geo. W. McKnight, who was the first man to announce that he was out for the Democratic nomination for county assessor. He was also the first man to hold a public sale of registered Durocs in Christian county. He has now gotten the stock breeders started and they are holding sales every fall.

Mr. McKnight says he is now going to do his best to win the race for assessor and he takes this opportunity to say to his friends and the voters of Christian that he is going to do all he can before the primary in August, but those that he falls to see mustn't think hard of him, because this is a big county and he has to see after his farm affairs until fall, at which time, if nominated, he will devote all his time to the canvass. He asks every one to come out on Aug. 2 and cast his vote for him in the primary, assuring all that their support will be appreciated. His motto, he says, is now and has always been "Justice to Everyone," and that he will guarantee to everyone who votes for him that he will never regret it. South Christian has never had a man to represent it and he thinks he is due this much in the present contest, if nothing else.

HUERTA TO RESIGN

Provisional Head Of Mexico Agrees To Naming Lascrain As Successor.

HOPES TO END REVOLTS.

Less Than 14,000 Troops Loyal To Federal Government.

El Paso, Texas, April 4.—To satisfy all factions in the Mexican revolution, Gen. Huerta has agreed to the naming of Pedro Lascrain as provisional president, says a despatch received here today from the Capitol. Lascrain would serve out the uncompleted term of the late President Madero.

As minister of exterior relations in Madero's former cabinet, Lascrain is entitled to serve as next in line, in view of the deaths of Madero and Vice President Suarez. The Huerta cabinet would be retained by the compromise.

This arrangement, it is said, has been offered to the constitutionalists now fighting the Huerta government in northern Mexico. It is declared that Governor Carranza of Coahuila has agreed and that the Sonora insurrectionists fall in line. The decision of the present provisional president is said to have been occasioned by the recent uprising of Zapata in the south, which places the Huerta forces between two fires.

Mexican artillery men here estimate that Huerta has not more than 14,000 troops in all Mexico with which to meet the situation.

Rev. Terry Martin's Lecture On The Life Of Bob Taylor.

Rev. Terry Martin, who has been selling Bob Taylor's Lectures in two volumes has prepared a lecture on the author which he calls "The Apostle of Sunshine" which was delivered for the first time at Cadiz last night. Mr. Martin is a speaker of ability who has enjoyed long and successful experience as an evangelist. His lecture deals with Bob Taylor's life and character and there is much of it in the humorous vein that made Senator Taylor the most popular lecture on the American platform. Mr. Martin will deliver his lecture in this city in the near future.

He thinks he sees in the minds of the people of the country, regardless of politics, a desire to turn the schools of the county over to a superintendent who looks beyond party domination and has the education of the young more at heart, than all other things. He is thoroughly equipped for the work and if chosen at the primary and after winning in the final contest, the people need have no fear of a clean, clear cut administration of the school affairs of the county.

NO TRAINS

Much Farther From Here to Chicago Than Used to Be.

All train service between here and Chicago and St. Louis was given up the middle of last week on account of the flood. The local agent said yesterday that everything out of Chicago and St. Louis for Hopkinsville comes via Louisville, over the Monon, the Big Four or Pennsylvania railroads. At Evansville the county for ten miles is flooded and the railroad company does not know what has become of their road—whether it has been washed from its bed or whether it is only submerged. Mr. Hoos said yesterday there was not even a guess coming as to when the trains would be running again. He said that a train passed here yesterday morning with a steam shovel, wrecking machinery and a force of men, but as to when they would be able to commence getting the track in order was something nobody could tell anything about it.

END OF CIRCUIT COURT

Only Few Matters Of General Interest Disposed Of This Week.

LARGE NUMBER OF DIVORCES

The Civil And Criminal Dockets Handled With Unusual Speed.

The six weeks term of Circuit Court ends today. Judge Hanbery six weeks ago had made up his mind to do some "house cleaning" during the term and has kept things moving as rapidly as circumstances would permit all the time.

Several divorces have been granted, a list of which will appear in our next issue.

The court fixed the fourth Monday in September and February as the days when petitions for naturalization will be considered.

In the case of E. W. Stegar vs. T. R. Troendle a motion for a new trial was overruled and an appeal to the higher court was granted.

In the case of Wilson Major and others against Edmund A. Garrett and others an appeal to the Court of Appeals was granted. Attorneys for plaintiff were allowed to file the affidavits of the following witnesses: S. E. Everett, T. W. Baber, G. O. Cherry and Mrs. Bettie Word.

The prisoners now in jail who were sentenced by the court last Wednesday will be removed by Sheriff Johnson the first of the week, probably Monday.

GOOD CROWD

Heard Lecture of Mr. Leffingwell Thursday Night.

Ignoring a terrific wind and rainfall about 7:40 Thursday night, just as the people were ready to go to The Avalon and hear Mr. W. B. Leffingwell's illustrated lecture on Yellowstone Park, 200 or more braved the elements and listened to one of the most interesting lectures delivered here in many a day. No doubt Mr. Leffingwell appreciated his hearers as fully as they were pleased with what he had to say to them. We have nothing but praise of the lecture and under favorable weather conditions Mr. Leffingwell would have been greeted with a capacity house.

The H. B. M. A. is to be congratulated on bringing Mr. Leffingwell here. The Association has done many good things for the county and city during its twelve months of existence, and securing Mr. Leffingwell is not among the least of them.

IN CONDENSED FORM

Summary of Results of Thirtieth U. S. Census.

Digested Information of Interest to People—Number, Acreage and Value of Farms—Regarded as Most Comprehensive Ever Issued.

Washington—A condensed summary of the results of the thirtieth census of the United States has just been issued by the bureau of the census, the summary (or abstract), according to a statement of Director E. Dana Durand, being the most comprehensive ever issued by the bureau of the census.

It contains digested and condensed information as to the number and geographical distribution of the nearly ninety-two million inhabitants of the country, their race, nativity, nativity of parents, sex, age, marital condition, state of birth of natives and country of birth of foreign inhabitants, citizenship, school attendance, illiteracy, dwellings and families. It shows the number, acreage and value of farms; the number and value of live stock; the acreage, production and value of the various crops, and the production and value of dairy and other farm products.

It contains statistics regarding the manufacturing, mining and quarrying industries, showing capital invested, quantity and cost of materials, wages and other expenses, quantity and value of products, number of employees and other important information. Statistics on all subjects are presented for every state and, where applicable, for every large city. Throughout the volume are maps and diagrams illustrating the tables.

The abstract is a very different document from any ever published in connection with the preceding censuses, and Director Durand expresses the belief that it will prove the most useful census publication ever issued, not only to students and professional statisticians, but also and more particularly to the business man, the farmer and the public generally.

In commenting upon some of the features of this volume, Director Durand, in a statement issued the other day, says:

"Among the new features of the present abstract is the emphasis that has been laid upon the geographical divisions of the country. On account of the large number of states, it is usually very difficult to grasp the broad geographical differences regarding population, agriculture and manufactures by means of comparisons among individual states and particularly so when they are arranged alphabetically and thus separated from those with which they are geographically related. For this reason the states have been grouped into nine well recognized geographical divisions. Full statistics with necessary comments are presented for these divisions. Besides, in the tables of statistics by states the latter are grouped geographically, thus permitting easy comparison among neighboring states.

"Again, in the population statistics in the abstract, details as to each subject are given for urban and rural communities separately. Fundamental differences in industrial and social life between cities and rural districts result in marked differences in the composition and characteristics of the population. In many cases it is impossible to understand the differences between states or sections of the country except through this distinction between urban and rural population. Very little use of this important distinction was made in the population statistics of previous censuses."

The most important departure from previous methods of publication made at the thirtieth census is the inclusion with the abstract of a supplement giving details for the particular state in which the person receiving the volume resides. This new feature is likely to meet with marked approval from the general public. It seems that the abstract is being issued in some fifty different editions with supplements for the different states. This scheme combines the advantages of a condensed report of the most general results of the census with those of a detailed report for the counties, cities and other minor civil divisions.

African Dwarf Elephants.

An English official in Uganda claims to have seen a herd of dwarf elephants, the existence of which has often been affirmed by natives. When recently seen the company consisted of from 30 to 40 individual elephants wandering in solitary fashion over a plain. The observer was most astonished at the weak defenses offered by their bodies. None of them had a tusk of more than ten kilograms in weight. A dead member of the flock was afterward found, the tusk of which weighed but eight kilograms.

During his career in Congress, Representative Stanley has been one of the most active members of that body, his investigation of the Steel Trust during the last session making him a world-wide figure. As a member of the Ways and Means Committee Representative Stanley will assist in shaping some of the most important measures to come before the extra session of Congress in April, as well as the regular session later in the year, chief of which will be tariff schedules.

Three matters which occupy the time and attention of Representative Stanley are the troubles of the miners and tobacco growers of Kentucky and the improvement of the Cumberland river, and now that his mind has been set on the betterment of the conditions of all three it is safe to say he will accomplish what he has set out to do or know the reason why. Only recently when the lack of cars was being investigated by the State Railroad Commission Representative Stanley came from Washington to Frankfort and Central City to appear before the Commission on behalf of the miners. It had been shown that the shortage of cars on the part of the railroad companies compelled the closing down of the mines part of the time, and that lack of work among the miners caused much suffering to their families.

The investigation required in the railroad companies agreeing to furnish more cars to the coal companies. Every bill that has come before the Congress during the past few years of benefit to the farming element of Kentucky, and especially to the tobacco growers, was championed by Representative Stanley, and as a result of his efforts in their behalf the farmers are getting a much larger price for tobacco than they were a few years ago when they were apparently in the grasp of the tobacco trust.

During a recent visit to Kentucky Representative Stanley made a trip up the Cumberland river and inspected the stream to ascertain its exact needs, and he will advocate an ample appropriation by Congress which will supply that river with sufficient locks and dams to insure navigation. During his entire career in Congress his time has been devoted to the needs of the people in Kentucky, and while many of the fights waged by him in their behalf have been long tiresome ones, he has never faltered until he had accomplished the aims set by him—Southern Prosperity Edition of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times.

NEW MINISTER

For Pembroke Baptist Church Has Arrived.

Since the pastorate of Pembroke Baptist church was given up by Rev. W. E. Mitchell, who accepted a call to Adairville, the membership has been without a minister. They recently extended a call to Rev. Scott, of Carolina. Mr. Scott is not a young man but has all the fire and enthusiasm of one, and will doubtless do much good in his new field of labor. He will preach tomorrow and at night, as he was to be on hand yesterday. Mr. Scott has a family.

Rev. Dotson Leaves.

Rev. Jas. L. Dotson moved this week to Harrodsburg, Ky., where he will have charge of a church at that place. His son, John, who is in school here, will not join his parents until after the session closes, and his daughter, Miss Anna, will also remain here until about June 1.

On Monday, April 7th, at the Court House, we will sell at auction a lot of second hand buggies, surries etc. These vehicles have all been repaired and painted.

2,000,000 LB. MARK REACHED

All Former Records Knocked Out As To Sales This Week.

WEEK'S SALES 890,150 LBS.

Some Good Grades on Sale,
Bringing From $10
To $12.

This week broke all former records, both as to receipts and sales. The receipt at the loose floor houses the factories and rehandling houses aggregated 2,000,000 lbs.

The hoghead business, with receipts of 61 hogheads, was overshadowed by the immense transactions on the loose floors, no hoghead sales being made.

Sales on the loose floors amounted this week to 890,150 lbs. Prices were well sustained under the heavy demand for all grades. A great deal of low grade tobacco was offered, yet some days showed the best character of tobacco of the season. This brought good prices, a large portion bringing from $10 to $12 per hundred.

While the loose floors the first of the week were very much crowded for room, all the stocks have been closed out and business next week will open up with clean floors.

Let no one imagine for a moment that this unprecedented and continuous influx of tobacco comes from the farms of Christian county. It came this week from ten counties tributary to Hopkinsville, Trigg, Todd, Hopkins, Muhlenburg, Caldwell, Lyon, Crittenden, Logan and Christian. How long the heavy receipts will continue no one can tell. It is easy to estimate the duration so far as our own county is concerned, but when one begins to calculate as to the other counties he gets lost in a maze of figures and guesses, because we have no real basis on which to estimate. Hopkinsville now is the Mecca of nearly every tobacco raiser, whether he has already sold or wants to sell. Below we give the weekly report of Inspector Abernathy:

Unsold stock Jan. 1, 1913 1125 Hds.
Receipts for week.....61 Hds.

Receipts for year.....881 Hds.
Sales for week.....0 Hds.
Sales for year.....895 Hds.

Comparative Digestibility of Food

Made with different Baking Powders

From a Series of Elaborate Chemical Tests:

An equal quantity of bread (biscuit) was made with each of three different kinds of baking powder—cream of tartar, phosphate, and alum—and submitted separately to the action of the digestive fluid, each for the same length of time.

The relative percentage of the food digested is shown as follows:

Bread made with
Royal Cream of Tartar Powder:

100 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with
phosphate powder:

68 1/4 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with
alum powder:

67 3/4 Per Cent. Digested

These tests, which are absolutely reliable and unprejudiced, make plain a fact of great importance to everyone: Food raised with Royal, a cream of tartar Baking Powder, is shown to be entirely digestible, while the alum and phosphate powders are found to largely retard the digestion of the food made from them.

Undigested food is not only wasted food, but it is the source of very many bodily ailments.

EXPLORERS DO GOOD WORK

Husband and Wife Have Mapped Out Hitherto Unknown Regions in Northern India.

The Himalayan explorers, Dr. and Mrs. Bullock Workman, recently arrived in Bangalore, India, from their last eventful expedition, after spending a few days in Bombay, on their journey south. It is their intention to rest and recuperate in Bangalore for some weeks. They covered much new ground in their last expedition—850 square miles—and all the mountains and glaciers have been mapped. Many new ascents were made, ranging from an altitude of 19,000 feet to 21,000 feet, to say nothing of camping for five weeks at an elevation of 17,000 feet. By far the longest and largest glacier in Asia, the Siachen, has been accurately located, which is the party's most notable achievement. This took place after the explorers had discovered two new watersheds between the Indus and the Chinese Turkestan region, and the return journey was accomplished through a hitherto unknown pass. The main object of the expedition was to complete the exploration of the Siachen glacier, which is fifty miles in length, in the Karakoram mountains. Not only was this achieved, but a connection between the Siachen glacier and the still unexplored Kondus glacier has been established.

SKILLED IN EMBALMING ART

Japanese of Two Hundred Years Ago
Had Brought to Perfection the Preservation of the Dead.

In the olden days in Japan the embalmers were successful in securing an excellent state of preservation in the bodies on which they operated. The Japan Chronicle recently drew attention to a case of this nature which came to light some time ago in Kobe. The operations which are being conducted by the municipality included the removal of some graves of the Aoyama family, situated in the rear of the Anyoji temple. Two graves were opened, belonging to old daimyos who were buried 200 years ago. The graves consisted of stone cells with large coffins of earthenware. When the spaces between the cell walls and the wooden coffins were opened those present were surprised to see that the bodies were in a state of preservation and had all the appearance of wax figures. The old Amagasaki lords lay in almost life-like freshness, dressed in the picturesque costume of an earlier day. Several valuable personal belongings were found in the graves, including two long swords, women's hair ornaments, boxes of pocket inkstones, gold family seals, etc.

Clever Idea of Thieves.

An up-to-date method of robbing hotels is exposed in the German papers. Two young men of excellent appearance are moving about Germany, staying at the best hotels in the leading holiday resorts. After dinner one of them amuses the hotel guests with songs, pianoforte solos and anecdotes, thus keeping the majority of them in the drawing room, while his companion ransacks the private rooms for money and valuables.

FAMOUS POLICEWOMAN CARRIES NO WEAPONS

Even when Mrs. Alice Stebbins Wells fishes about in her bag and produces her policeman's star for verification one can hardly believe that she is the famous first "policewoman" of Los Angeles. Scarcely five feet in height, slender, with a mild, almost timorous voice and a pair of very round blue eyes, Mrs. Wells presents an appearance about as formidable as that of a kitten. Yet she has been permanently appointed as a regular member of the police force of a city of 400,000, subject to the same regulations, and under civil service, as any male member of Los Angeles's bluecoat squad. She makes arrests and prefers charges in the same way and with as much success as any policeman, and is a very substantial vindication of the power of personality in an institution where brute force and a six-foot stature have formerly been thought to be indispensable prerequisites. Here is what she says of a phase of police work:

"And do I carry weapons? No, indeed. That is something which I do not feel called upon to do. I am very firmly convinced that under the right conditions a policeman would not have to carry a weapon at all. But before the policeman can give up his gun and his stick, weapons must not be sold indiscriminately to citizens. The only reason now that a policeman requires a weapon is because the other fellow may have one, and the law must enforce its demands against all objection. It is a very sad commentary on our civilization that guns and brass knuckles are displayed openly for sale, and that almost the only restriction in our most careful communities is a provision for a license, which is easily obtained."

Mrs. Wells is the first woman to be appointed to a police force in any city of the United States. The woman detective, the police matron, the probation officer, the district nurse, are all places which have been filled by women, and were of course the forerunners of that policewoman. But while they were vested with partial police authority their power was greatly restricted along certain well-defined lines, and they did not work in recognized co-operation with the police department.

NEW SOUTH AMERICAN BEAUTY WINS PARIS

His interest aroused by a glimpse of the newest South American helress, Senerita Mervella Estudillos, whose beauty has conquered all Paris.

His interest aroused by a glimpse of the newest South American helress, Senerita Mervella Estudillos, whose beauty has conquered all Paris.

While there he will be entertained by the parents of Senerita Estudillos, whom he met in Madrid last year, and whose charm and vivacity first aroused his interest in the new world.

Senerita Estudillos is the most famous of those belles who have changed the title market of Europe from North to South America. She is a great friend of the princess Murat and is besieged by a host of suitors. At one time the crown prince of Serbia saw her and demurred an introduction. She flatly refused to meet him.

Of late the name of Senerita Estudillos has been linked with that of Count Don de Castellane, through his having told some of his creditors he expected to marry her, but she laughs such an alliance to scorn.

The South American woman abroad is becoming a rival to her northern sister. She is attracting the attention of the shopkeepers, for she is as rich as the North American, and even more lavish with her money, made from mines, vast ranches and estates in Argentina and Brazil, and even Chili.

These beauties, descended from noble Spanish and Portuguese who have lived in the new world for a hundred years, are vivacious and sparkling and love gaiety and movement, and they are the most notorious flirts in the world.

Flirting is an art with them. It is never vulgar, but is a fascinating, tantalizing thing, and the South American girl can give points to all the world in this art.

Already there are many rich and famous beauties in this colony in Paris that are being sought by titled Frenchmen who are looking for fortunes as well as beautiful wives.

Flirting is an art with them. It is never vulgar, but is a fascinating, tantalizing thing, and the South American girl can give points to all the world in this art.

His interest aroused by a glimpse of the newest South American helress, Senerita Mervella Estudillos, whose beauty has conquered all Paris.

While there he will be entertained by the parents of Senerita Estudillos, whom he met in Madrid last year, and whose charm and vivacity first aroused his interest in the new world.

Senerita Estudillos is the most famous of those belles who have changed the title market of Europe from North to South America. She is a great friend of the princess Murat and is besieged by a host of suitors.

At one time the crown prince of Serbia saw her and demurred an introduction. She flatly refused to meet him.

Of late the name of Senerita Estudillos has been linked with that of Count Don de Castellane, through his having told some of his creditors he expected to marry her, but she laughs such an alliance to scorn.

The South American woman abroad is becoming a rival to her northern sister. She is attracting the attention of the shopkeepers, for she is as rich as the North American, and even more lavish with her money, made from mines, vast ranches and estates in Argentina and Brazil, and even Chili.

These beauties, descended from noble Spanish and Portuguese who have lived in the new world for a hundred years, are vivacious and sparkling and love gaiety and movement, and they are the most notorious flirts in the world.

Flirting is an art with them. It is never vulgar, but is a fascinating, tantalizing thing, and the South American girl can give points to all the world in this art.

HAVE A DAY TO SWEEP

RULE THAT MAKES FOR ORDER-LINESS IN THE HOUSEHOLD.

Parlors and Dining Rooms Should
Have a Thorough Cleaning Out Every Week, and the Bedrooms Every Two Weeks.

Dining and living rooms need a thorough turning out and sweeping once a week, while every other week will usually suffice for bedrooms if they are picked up, as it is termed,
each day—that is, kept tidied and well
dusted.

Before sweeping a room it is a good plan to remove as many of the larger pieces of furniture as possible, especially the upholstered kind. If this is impossible then each article should be covered with a dusting sheet, for if the dust once gets into tufted furniture it is very hard indeed to get it out again. A soft brush will not remove it, while a stiff one is apt to injure the covering.

Carpets are much less used than formerly, rugs taking their place. To sweep a large rug or carpet first sprinkle with something damp to keep the dust from arising. To my thinking the very best thing is a newspaper torn into small pieces and dampened, then sprinkled over the carpet. Sweep toward the middle of the room. Take up the dust in a pan, running the sweeper over to take up any that remains. Turn the rug up all the way around, and sweep the bare boards with a broom covered with a cotton flannel rag.

The mistress can prepare the rooms
so the maid can go on with the sweeping from room to room. The maid will remove heavy pieces, but the mistress will attend to the ornaments,
washing any bric-a-brac, if necessary,
also see the curtains are pinned up carefully after being well shaken from the window. The piano is always well covered to keep the dust out.

By the time the floors are swept the room done first will be ready for dusting. Mistress and maid can share this between them. The latter will clean the windows, dust off the pictures, brush the upholstered furniture and do any polishing. She will also attend to the floor beyond the carpet.
This is done the last thing before putting the furniture in place.

The mistress will take care of the decorative furnishings of the room;
also the plants, the lamps and the books.

Dustless dusters are the best kind to use, the feather duster about the worst—for obvious reasons.

Simple rugs are now used generally in bedrooms, and this simplifies the cleaning. Even a large one will not be too heavy to take up once a month or so and taken out of doors to be beaten. The floor can then be swept, wiped up with a damp cloth,
and then rubbed with a good floor
oil.

The bed clothing must be placed on the windows or out of doors for a good airing, and all small articles can be dusted and placed on the bed under the dust sheets.

Silver toilet articles should be sent to the kitchen to be cleaned, and bedroom day is a very good time to wash
brushes and tidy the top bureau drawer.

Stained Floors.

It is said that sawdust makes the best cleanser for a waxed or varnished floor that has become too dirty for the usual treatment. Soap and water will ruin the polish, but if clean sawdust is scattered over the floor and a person gets down and uses a scrubbing brush with the same movements as though using water, every bit of dirt and soil will come away. The sawdust is then swept up and destroyed,
and the floor polished in the general way.

Maple Fudge.

Break about a pound of maple sugar
into small pieces, mix it with a cupful of milk and put it on the fire. This mixture should come to a boil before a tablespoonful of butter is added.
Cook the whole until a little dropped in cold water will become brittle. Take it from the fire and begin stirring at once until you notice it beginning to granulate a little. Then pour it into a greased pan, which should have been prepared beforehand. Mark into squares of any size wished and let it cool.

Codfish Balls.

To one cupful of boiled codfish chopped fine add two cupfuls or more of unbaked potatoes. Moisten with one beaten egg, or two or three tablespoonfuls of sweet milk. Season with pepper and a little butter. Make small flat cakes; flour and fry a delicate brown in hot drippings of lard. A more delicate dish is made by dipping the cakes in beaten egg, then in bread crumbs, and frying as above stated.

Lemon Tarts.

Mix well together the juice and grated rind of two lemons, two cups of sugar, two eggs and the crumbs of sponge cake; beat it all together until smooth, put into twelve pattypans lined with puff-paste and bake until the crust is done.

Cheese Sandwiches.

Grate any kind of cheese, add salt,
a few drops of vinegar and paprika
and a speck of mustard. Mix thoroughly and spread between thin slices of buttered bread.

Woman Past Help.

Chandler, Okla.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Ella Flowers says:
"I hardly know how to thank you for the good that Cardui has done
me. Before I tried Cardui, I thought I was past help, but after taking it I was relieved at once, and gained at least 10 pounds. Everybody says I look so much better. I am still improving greatly." Many women are completely worn out and discouraged, on account of womanly weakness. Are you? Have you not tried Cardui? It only needs a few doses to convince you that Cardui is just what you need. Try it today.
It will cure your pains.

Chickens Lack Originality.

Abby, the littlest girl of the family,
was seated at the breakfast table one morning. As usual, eggs were served.
Either she was not hungry or she had grown tired of the inevitable bill of fare, for very earnestly and soberly
she remarked: "I do wish hens would lay something besides eggs."

NEW DESSERT RECIPES

TEMPTING SWEETS THAT HAVE BEEN DEvised BY AN EXPERT.

Maple Nut Pudding Will Be Appreciated by Those Who Are Fond of the Flavor—Rhubarb Tapioca
Worth a Trial.

Miss Farmer demonstrated the making of some new and tempting desserts this week. Following are the recipes:

Maple Nut Pudding.—To 1½ cupfuls of brown sugar add 2 cupfuls of boiling water and 1-3 cupful of cornstarch diluted with ¼ cupful of cold water. Cook over gas flame until mixture thickens; then in double boiler for 15 minutes, stirring occasionally.
Remove from range, add whites of 3
eggs beaten stiff and ½ cupful of nut meats broken in pieces. Serve with a custard sauce made of the yolks of eggs.

Rhubarb Tapioca.—Soak 2-3 cupful of pearl tapioca in cold water to cover over night. Drain and cook in double boiler with 1½ cupfuls of boiling water and 2-3 teaspoonfuls of salt; when tapioca has absorbed water, add 3 cupfuls of rhubarb cut in ¼-inch pieces crosswise, and 1-3 cupfuls of sugar.
Cook until tapioca is transparent and rhubarb is soft. Serve hot with sugar and cream.

Orange Cream Sponge.—Melt 3 tablespoonfuls of butter, add ¼ cupful of flour, pour on 1 cupful of hot milk and bring to the boiling point. Add grated rind of 1 orange and 1 tablespoonful of orange juice to the yolks of 4 eggs, and beat until thick and lemon-colored; then add gradually 1 cupful of sugar, continuing the beating. Combine mixtures and fold in whites of 4 eggs beaten stiff. Turn into a melon mould, cover and steam 35 minutes, or cook in blazer 40 minutes. Serve with orange sauce. For this beat whites of 3 eggs until stiff,
add gradually 1 cupful of powdered
sugar and very slowly the juice of 2
oranges, also the grated rind and juice of 1 lemon.

Baked Gingerbread with Apples.—
Cut 5 large apples, each in pieces, and remove skin and seeds. Cook in a thin syrup made of ½ cupful of sugar and ¼ cupful of water until about half done; then drain off syrup
and put apples in an earthen baking dish, pour over apples gingerbread and bake until firm. Serve with whipped cream sweetened and flavored or Cambridge sauce made after this rule: Cream 1-3 cupful of butter,
add gradually 1 cupful of powdered
sugar. Dilute 2 teaspoonfuls flour with 1½ tablespoonfuls of cold water, add to ¼ cupful of boiling water and let boil 5 minutes. Cool, and just before sending to table add combined mixtures and 2-3 spoonful of vanilla and 1-3 teaspoonful of lemon extract.

Gingerbread.—Melt ½ cupful of butter, add 1 cupful of molasses, 1 egg well beaten, ¼ cupful of sour milk, 2
teaspoonfuls soda mixed with 2 cupfuls of flour and 1th 1 teaspoonful of ginger.—Boston Transcript.

Cuban Stewed Chicken.

Put in a stewpan half a cupful of pure olive oil, one chopped onion and a bruised clove of garlic. Cook until they begin to turn brown, when the chicken, divided as for fricassee, and a quarter of a pound of dried bacon should be added. When the chicken has cooked to a delicate brown add a half dozen tomatoes, a bay leaf, a couple of cloves and a green pepper seeded and cut fine. Cover and cook slowly for half an hour. Add one pint of boiling water and one cup of well washed rice, salt and pepper to taste. Cook until the rice has absorbed all the liquid, then place back on the stove and let the rice steam for twenty minutes longer.

Novel Cake Container.

A large earthen jar can be used for safely storing pies, several layer cakes or loaves of fruit cake by this system of shelves. It is made by nailing two spoons under four corners of a grape basket cover. Place one loaf of cake on bottom of jar, place a shelf over it and another cake on this with a shelf above and so on. The spoons raise the boards just high enough to protect the cake and the shelves are easily removed. The earthen jar keeps the contents in much better condition than does a tin or wooden cake box.

Soft Custard.

Yolks of four eggs, one-half cup
sugar, one pint milk, pinch of salt, vanilla. Put milk in double boiler and when just beginning to boil add the beaten yolks of the eggs and the rest of the ingredients and cook until the mixture coats the spoon.

Onion Gruel for Colds.

This gruel is excellent for a cold.
Slice a few onions and boil them in a pint of new milk; stir in a sprinkle of oatmeal and a very little salt, boil till the onions are quite tender, then sup rapidly and go to bed.

Good Way to Fry Fish.

The secret of frying fish crisp and brown without either eggs or bread crumbs is to dry it well, dredge both sides with plenty of flour and plunge it into boiling fat. Be sure the fat is boiling and that there is plenty of it.

Creamed Baked Trout.

Clean the trout, put in pepper and salt and close them. Place the fish in the pan with just enough cream to cover the fish. Bake fifteen or twenty minutes.

What a Woman Discovered.

One woman in this city recently discovered that she was paying four profits on almost every article she bought at the store. That before it came to her there was the Manufacturer's Profit, the Jobber's Profit, the Wholesaler's Profit, and the Storekeeper's Profit all to be paid. She thought this excessive cost had to be endured, and was gratified to learn that she could buy her household supplies at manufacturer's prices direct from the Larkin Co., thus avoiding these unnecessary profits and getting $1.00 worth of household supplies for every 50¢ she spent. To-day she is ordering her soaps, teas, spices, and hundreds of other household supplies direct from the Larkin Co., and saving money on every purchase she makes. She is, moreover, telling her friends about this "Factory-to-Family" method of dealing, and the big savings it means for everybody. Write to the Larkin Co., Buffalo, N. Y., yourself, and ask them for their large Catalog R 101. This describes each of the Products (there are over 500) and gives full information about the Larkin "Factory-to-Family" method of dealing.

Hardware Display.

The Cincinnati house represented in this section by Mr. Walter Faulkner had a pretty display of samples of their goods at Hotel Latham two days of this week. A special representative of the house was sent here to assist Mr. Faulkner in handling the display and both were very busy in showing their line to the trade.

Bob Taylor Lives,

In the two bright and beautiful books just issued, "Lectures and Best Literary Productions," and "Life and Career" of Senator Robert Love Taylor, handsomely illustrated, you cannot hear again his voice or see the humorous curl of his lips, that convulsed a continent with laughter, but, within the covers of these volumes, are the pictures woven of his wondrous words, and, laughing through their sunny pages, are all of the inimitable stories which he told to the multitudes. In "Life and Career," pens of genius have traced his romantic life from its morning in "Happy Valley," through his young and roseate dreams, through stress and storm, through cheering throngs, and on into the waiting shadows, loved and laurel crowned.

We expect to sell millions of these books. First edition going fast.
